

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

Gifts for Easter Brides.

Beautiful pieces which make ideal wedding gifts—fit to be the crown jewels of the new home. So various as to make choosing easy, so beautiful as to eclipse gifts "sent to be a moment's ornament" so lasting as to be better than new after the golden wedding day.

In oak: Chests, chairs and settles, so superbly carved that the famous woodcarvers among the old Flemings and Hollander might have been proud to call their own.

In mahogany: Colonial treasures—cabinets, tall chairs, sofas, wonderfully pleasing in quaint beauty of line; French treasures—rare pieces for boudoir and bedroom, with inlays sometimes elaborate but ever charming, of flowers, cupids and villa scenes painted with all the skill of a Boucher.

In gold: Decorated cabinets, toilet tables of the Marie Antoinette period—richly hand-carved wood in roccoco and leafy designs heavily overlaid with gold.

In Vernis Martin, in satin-wood, in carved walnut, and other delights. To have the thought go with the gift and to add most to the joy of the wedding day you must.
